At a meeting of the High Council at the Music

Hall on Saturday March 16th 1850 at 11 oclock

A.M. the members of the Council were all present but Councilor Henry Miller whose place was filled by D. D. Hunt.

The Council was opened by Prest Orson Hyde an remarks were made by Councillor Coulson in relation to the measures & the difficulties of those engaged in the Saw Mill.

Prest Orson Hyde spoke of the mission of Bro

Mulliner & Bro Blair said that his allusions were not with regard to the Saw Mill, for that might be good in itself, but to the spirit by which those men were [=====]who were engaged in it, made allusions to the humbuggies of men who were too lazy to work to get an honest living,I Said there may be good in, the machine but I seriously doubt it let the machine be tested on an economical scale

& if there is any good in it, let them do what they will with itself the funds derived from it, would amount to any thing. I should by in favor of having the Tything paid out of it Spoke of the joint stock Com P in England; its many shares sold and of the many thousand Dollars that were collected; & its designs to build ships for the Saints to emigrate, also spoke of its allusions effects & final results, that there were no addition to the Church the Gospel was not preached nothing but joint stock.
