Bro tap. Alex Williams, Testified he went with Joseph Fields to see Tinker while he was in Mo.after he had left here and a letter read by Fields, to Tinker, requesting Tinker to send to Sidwell his oxen and waggon, by Fields, and that Sidwell must have learned by Fields where Tinker was and he remained there long enough for Sidwell to have secured his pay of him; testified his had told him before that the property belonged to Sidwell.

Francis Lawrence Testified, that Tinker offered his property to him. for sale, and wished him to circulate that he had such property for sale, stating he had borrowed money of a man who was below and he wanted to get it into money again so as to go and settle with him.. He did not know but the man would come to get the oxen and waggon if so he would have them, testified also he and brother Pendleton went over to see his goods &c.. Bro, Pendleton bought considerable of his flour..

Rausom Bernard Testified that he understood his father got for the mare $130. in 1 waggon at $100.,--1 pair of oxen at $10. and the other $20. he got a bed bedding and some dishes, but he was not present at the time of the trading..

John Bearnard, testified, He told Bro Mellin

There was the Tinker waggon his father bought.. the other three standing near one his father bought and the other two they bought the woods and ----- them, themselves.. He denied telling Mellin his father got $200. for the mare..

Eligah Mellin stated he had told the truth, and he knew the young man was lying when he said they got two pairs of oxen &c..

Wm Mendonhall stated it being was late when Tinker came on, but as he expected Sidwell up for the cattle he would not send them to the rushes and did not buy hay to feed them, &c..

Resolved the whole council into committee and voted to with draw..
