Accordingly she went the first opportunity to Winter Quarters and shortly afterwards went down to them Camp and stopping at one of their neighbors learning that Kimball was at home,, she then sent for him to go down and see her,, he came down but she could not get any with him,, at last he asked her to go home with him,, she did but got no satisfaction there.. He did not sleep with her while there, she was there two nights he sent a team to take her things to Winter Quarters,, he gave her two dollars and a half in money..

Pres. B. Young made some very pointed remarks on the case so,also pres. Allred..

Bro Isacc Bullock testified that he came in company with Kimball Bullock to Pisgah who Kimball Bullock stoped, left his wife and things while he went back to trade in the settlements, and said Isacc Bullock came into the Bluffs with his father& family, he then returned to meet Kimball and help him up, said he and she began to quize Kimball about his wife's leaving him, ask him if he loved her, he replied by asking her if one could retain the principle of love for another who returned nothing but indifference,,said the same was repeated at Sister Pratts.. He was with them all the way from Nauvoo, and till they got into a house, he was then taken sick and for five weeks was confined to the house, was there at the time that Jane and Kimball went away.. Kimball went one morning and Jane went the next day in the afternoon..

Sister Prat testified that Bro. Kimball Bullock's mother told her and Sister Greene & Sister Elsworth that Kimball was dissatisfied and would not live with Jane again that she complained so much he considered her lazy indolent and not a good economist,, said she told her she was mistaken in that and had she of kept her untill she was well, she would have found her a
