come he would pay for him.. Bro. Isaac Alred said the steer that Bro. Lovelace got at his house was such Bro Lovelace said when they moved from the East a steer followed them out here and when he moved to Pigeon he drove the steer with his cattle..

an one as had been described by the former witness,, that Lovelace got him from among his cattle..

It staid there a few days and then left his cattle and shortly after Bro. Willson sent up for him to come down and help butcher the steer, and he went

Bro. J Bingham & H, Mc bleland said that L. Bingham said bro Craig described the steer the same as Lovelace down, and they killed the steer as they supposed.. but when he returned home his boys told him the steer was with Bro. Alred's cattle,, and the next day

Sister Elisabeth Willson said the steer was gone about three weeks and when it returned it was they went and found him and tried to drive him home but finding him difficult to drive he killed him,, and said he was satisfied that he and Bro Willson quiet and gentle as before,, that the boys used to ride him in driving the other cattle &c.. Decided that was nit Burgerson's ox that Lovelace had killed and that Lovelace pay six dollars to bishop N.K. Whitney for the benefit of the poor, in ----- for the steer he acknowledged to have killed..

Bro Curtis was called forward, and he stated that when he was his son & Bro . Lovelace & son went down to Bank's ferry, after wheat, while there they turned their oxen into a pasture and some of the oxen got their Brors out and cost them,, and when they went, to look for them Mr Banks requested them to look for a chain and bell for him.. Bro. Lovelace found a chain and put it into his waggon and brought it home..
