to collect suit forthwith.-----

Stated that this Letter called upon the Council to know if Br Loveless improvement could not be turned upon Sister Lawrence to satisfy her instead of Yoke of cattle and 12 dollars which he was owing

Council Mc Lellan said that he has but one Yoke of Oxen, his Boys have none of his- That her wagon will be returned as soon as it comes from Missouri-her.----- that this improvement consists of 10 acres under under good fence 3 acres is soon with wheat one share

Council Benson stated that Bishop Bracker told him that he believed he had no intention of paying Sister Lawrence at all, refered to the treacherous conduct of Br Loveless and that he has no wish that this Council should show any unit acre falling to him. The improvement has never been offered to his knowledge under 60 Dollars at any time. Council Benson said she wished the means now. She don't want the place at all, but the things agreed upon to her to get to the Valley.-----

Prest Hyde referred to the Character of Br Loveless for truth & honesty. He said he wanted Br Loveless to make good what he owed her. He has been living with her, She has a Child by him, and wants support with warmth of feeling
