before Council

Remarks were made by Councillors Coulson

Stoddard, Johnson, Bigler & Hunt.----------

Moved by Prest Hyde that Councillors & Bulkley speak on the side Sisters Martin & Councillors

Benson & Oviatt on the part of Racheal Hamblin

Sister Martin stated that she let Bro Mitchel have one yoke of Oxen & a first rate 50 dollar Waggon he promissed & pledged her his salvation to send back the waggon & team & I consider I have the claim of the Gold Dust. I gave him money beside to purchase flour on the terms of having a House & Home when I got to the Valley and to be situated as though I were one of the family- Ques by Prest Hyde , What ammount of means did you give him 12 dollars

The cattle were 3 years old-The ammount of Gold Dust 120 dollars so considered by him

Prest Hyde called for the letter.----------

Br Hamblin stated that Mrs Martin said that I would wait till I got to the Valley before

I got the 45 dollars, but I said no such thing.----------

Br Balunce stated that he said he saw Br cotteril who was present when the receitpt was drawn up but he heard of no agreement & know no thing of this matter. The evidence was considered stufficient by the Court regurding the team & waggon being sent by Mr Pehel to the Valley and admitted by the opposite Party- Prest Hyde said that the ammount of Gold was not more then 60 dollars, according to the estimate paid on that ammount which would not be more than suffcuent to purchas a Team & waggon. Mrs Hamblins statement was, that she had arranged with Mitchel that if
