for bringing the Gold there was the payment of the cow and the putting out the Boy would amount to some expense and that it was his mind that Sister Martin rerceive her necessary pay for her expences in sending out a team & wagon.

Council Bulkley said that Sister Martin had sacrificed property & had not received renumeration

She gave up Ben, wagon & 12 dollars to fit Wm

Mitchel off- That Sister Hambllin did nothing to fit him off with all all he wondered

She claimed any Gold at all and in his opinion the Gold belonged to Sister Martin- a Boy at 7 or 8 years[========]earns his living. Sister Martin found his clothing- Councillor Benson said that Sister Martin has thrown in property only to the amount of 10 dollars that no claims had been made for t he 12 dollars . Sister Hamblin has claimed for 1 1/2 for the Boys keeping. That he knew for had Boys, that keeping Boys at that age was unprofitable. That the settlement of standing and open a/c we had nothing to do with Sister

Hamblin disputes the High charge made on many of the articles in the bill presented by Sister Martin

Prest Hyde said this case is a difficult matter

The charger on the 1st [=====] I think Sister Martin has the first bona fide claim to the Gold dust

2 I think there is some claim for sister Hamblin for the Boy going to school and the time would exclude much advasitage arising from his labour and now the thing to decide is how it shall be. The amount was 84 dollars. She Sister Martin has owe 4.5,50, The Oxen were worth 30 dollars The wagon was worth 50 here. And 10 dollars Mitchel received after the flour was left to Sister Martin. The Boys keeping
