half of the profits until the time that he says I forcibly took possession of the mill- I acknowledge that I was to fast on that occasion, and made immediate retractions-

Bro. Gould called me a liar three times, I being hasty drew back to strike him, but reflecting I withheld, from striking but told him not to touch another kernel of grain until we had a settlement- yet I began immediately & told him to come and get some meat that I had in the house, and to get out of the mill so as not to deprive him of his living= Counsellor Coulson called for each man's account of stock invested=some remarks from Counsellor

Harris on copartnership: followed by Isaac Allred on the same who said he was satisfied that Bro. Cooley came up here with the intent of going on to the Valley- that he let Bro.

Brigham have his team & he took the mill at winter Quarters in exchange= Council adjourned on hour to give the parties time to make up their accounts of investment=
