Cooley arose and said it was his time to take the floor, said

Witness for defendant Garrett Miksell- Remarks from several they agreed to leave the mills to keep correct accounts of of the Counsellor- Counsellor Browning made a few remarks all the proceeds of the mills untill they settled, this I hear said the Council understood the case as well as himself that been willing to do I did not think it throwing contempt on the case was a plain one, said it was evident that the charge the Council= President Allred arose and said he had testimony was sustained, and they submitted the case.. that Cooley had said, their intention was to have been Equal Counsellors Bigler arose and said in behalf of the partners in the mill and the witness on hand to prove it, defendant he should plead for mercy to be extended after some remarks said his mind is the chage is fairly

Bro. Gould arose and said had extended mercy sustained, and that Cooley give Gould possession of the mill until it had ===== to be a virtue, he had called on Cooley during next week, or that Cooley be cut off from the church for possession of the property it had not been given- said Cooley of J.C. of L. D. S. and on motion his virues were sustained by had tried to sell the mill since he was notified on the Council unanimously.

Cooley then called for an appeal to the first presidency in G. S. Lake valley- Counsellor G. W. Harris objected untill he should comply with the decision of the Council.

Counsellors Coulson arose and spake on the spirit of appealing to the first Presidency which was very much to the point.. Remarks from several of the Counsellor. Counsellor Stoddard showed that Cooley had a bad spirit..

Counsellor Harris motioned that Cooley can not have an appeal untill he complies with the decission of the Council..

On motion the Council adjourned two weeks

Kanesville Iowa Oct. 12-1850

Persuant to adjournment, met of the High Council at the Music Hall Wm. W. Lane Jonothan Browning.
