of it, I could see no harm in it---Councillor Coulson said

Councillor Geo. Coulson asked if Bro Dibble had any authority from the Valley to make or witness the witness was before the Council that Bro. Dibble was covenants. Bro Dibble said as to any authority I have willing to ride to the Valley on the prostrate a wreck of none. Bro Cunningham asked me if there was any sealing

female virtue, he is not worthy of holding the Eternal powers left here. I told him no: but he had a right to make

Priest Hood of God; and he ought to lay it down-- he is a covenant & take a woman with him to the Valley and if pursueing a course- not only to drain the field from the goers and the public, but also from the Brethren,

there was any wrong about it, that would be right there, to sustain himself in Idleness and lazing---

That writing was presented to me and I witnessed it

Prest O. Hyde said it is distiuetly understood by all that as you see-- I doubted the propriety of it, and if I had went no one here had any right, to make or lately any sealing

according to my feelings, I should not have done it, I was sorry covenant-- It could not be done this side of t he Valley-- afterwards I had done it-- Still when I looked on this no one is mistaken in. Bro. Dibble replied he wanted to do about right, he might miss it a little like his brethren-- but he was not serving with eye service, he knew what he was about, he was not afraid of his brethren here or in the Valley either, I mean I am not afraid to be tried by my brethren here or in the Valley either---Councillor Coulson said I believe you will make me do all the talking today-

Spoke quite lengthy on the evils of speculation, dissipation &

Prest O. Hyde said I counselled, to cultivate the soil extensively- to sow all the wheat they could: and I set the example myself--- went to work---sowed 20 acres- it alarmed some of the brethren-- Bro Hyde was going to apostatise- But bye the bye the gold diggers came along. I sold the flour at $ 7 for 100 lb
