of the Council & House.----------

Prest Hyde made several remarks on grogeries and of measures to be adopted to put them down and suggested that we use all honorable and gentlemanly means to put them dow and rid ourselves of such nuisance.

A motion was put to the Council & House to that effect- Carried with[===]acclamations he stated further that if the law was in force, he would not interfer but as it is not we have to use other moral power as Citizens..
