until the governor's writ has taken the preponer other wise they would say, we sent foe his Family with a design of moving him off.

Council Coulson that thought that he law of of the Church did not bind any Woman to a Scoundrel for the sake of pandering a nest of Vipers on the Church. He wished to know if while she was here she did not know the vices of the of the man. If she did she was still following him up in his Wicked course and was partaker of his evil deeds &c&c.----------

Councellor Harris made remarks honorable to his wife. Her Character & Family comes connexions were worth the notice of the Council.

Councilr Stoddard said that the Dr had spoken his mind in a general point of view.

Councillor Redfield expressed the delicacy of the subject and his inability to decide Councillor Snow spoke of the virtue of the confiding of Woman and its effects when where the husband will take any advantage of of them by misrepresentation Spoke of the various circumstances in which the woman was placed and hoped that mercy would be shown to the inncocent Councillor Benson said he wished with the Doctor that in as much as the familly were partakers of their evil deeds that the authorities would sustain them for it would thereby throw a pubic influence abroad against us as a people.---------- Councill Bigler said he did not want to bring up general case as a president but his views were that we should deal with it according to circumstances and the nature of the case made allusion also to many honest men & women being led off. Councillr Johnson said he thought if it was right to sustain the Wife
