Councilr Stoddard said that the Dr had spoken his mind in a general point of view.

Councillor Redfield expressed the delicacy of the subject until the governor's writ has taken the preponer other wise they would say, we sent foe his Family and his inability to decide with a design of moving him off.

Councillor Snow spoke of the virtue of the confiding Council Coulson that thought that he law of of Woman and its effects when of the Church did not bind any Woman to a Scoundrel for the sake of pandering a nest of Vipers where the husband will take any advantage of on the Church. He wished to know if while of them by misrepresentation Spoke of the various in as much as the family were partakers of their evil Councillor Harris made remarks honorable to his wife. Her Character & Family comes connexions deeds that the authorities would sustain them for it would thereby throw a public influence abroad against us as a people.-----

Councill Bigler said he did not want to bring up general case as a president but his views were that we should deal with it according to circumstances and the nature of the case made allusion also to many honest men & women being led off. Councillr Johnson said he thought if it was right to sustain the Wife
