extend the hand of mercy towards him. Carter then plead for mercy

Pres Hyde then said that he had the witness within him Pres Hyde said that he was a mercifull man. Carter then said tell that Carter did lie, and you may acknowledge what you will, me all that I have got to confess and I will do it Pres Hyde told what you have got shall be taken from you, Well said Carter him that he could not make a whole sale business of It, he would if you are going to take them from me there is no use for me to make have to retail it, well sail he I will do any thing you want me any acknowledgments, Pres Hyde told him that the spirit of confession to do, Well said Pres Hyde You acknowledges that you told me a was not in him lie when you called God-Angels and men to witness that you never and to see if the brethren felt as he did about it he would call a vote on it, and the vote was amanous that he had not the spirit witnesses have said it true, answer Yes it is true[-] you actknowledge of confession in him, Pres Hyde then said that he was within a that you did use these arguments to bring Cordelia Meckam hairs breath of having his membership and his Preasthood to your measures, answer yes I did. Pres Hyde then said it was well for him that he had acknowledged altho it was drawn from him by inched he then said he would call a vote on it.

Joseph Meakam said he would like to ask one question by permission, the Pres said ask, bro Meakam said that under his present [-----] if things he did not feel it in his heart to forgive bro Carter for said he I look upon him as being guilty of sheading incent blood, but said he if I am wrong I want to be corrected and will stand so. Pres Hyde answered the question by saying there was a clause in the book of Covenants that said forgive all men, and the Lord says in the same clause I will forgive whom I will, bro Meakan said was satisfied to do so.

Brothers Jarome Benson said there was a matter between him and Carter and if it would not be out of place he would like to have the matter then and there,
