and was told there was a motion now pending before the house to cut him and his wife from the

It was moved that Prest Allred Stat the causes to him= Carried = The Prest then said it was for slee=ping with another man's wife=and if you have any thing to say- say it-- Hewitt replied I have . I have nothing to say only I do say it is a lie before God, and that is the man, pointing to Henderson,who has ===== ted this-- he further remarked, as to my wife, she===== tried seduce any woman to my lusts, & you have no evidence that she has== she is just as good a woman as you or any other man has got-- and as to the High Council, you may cut me of from the Church as quick as you please, and I will take an appeal to the first Presidency they can judge by the spirit as well as you-- and as to that man Henderson I will take enough cut of his hide, to pay him for living. The motion was then answered to not embrace Sister Hewitt, But to include Hewitt and Mary Ette-- which was carried unanimously and they were both cut off from the Church..

Bro. Philo Dibble appeared and was ready for the hearing if his case-- He presented a document to the Council according to the notice specified in the summons, purporting to be a sealing covenant between,

Charles Cunningham was Cynthia Mann which read as follows. Kanesville February 10th 1849.-----

This may certify that Bro. Charles Cunningham has agreed to take Cynthia Mann to the Valley and there be sealed to her for time and for Eternity as his wife-Cynthia

Mann has also covenanted to go with Charles Cunningham to the Salt Lake and there be sealed to him for time and Eternity as his wife.=====
