account, and that had been done, and called on Ganet

Miksell- Prest Allred remarked it was better to suffer

Col. Dodge, which A.W. Babbit wanted printed , and Bro.

wrong than to do wrong==Bro. Ganett Miksell said that Bros

Gooches respond to said letter- after the reading

Cooley and Gould came to him & said they were agoing

the papers, on motion the Council voted to sanction to give the mill into his hands untill they had hono-ra-their publication= The doors were opened and the asse-bly settled their difficulty, and he heard Bro. Cooley tell mbly came in= Bro's Gould came forward and said that

Bro. Gould that they would give the man who tends the

Bro. Cooley still refused to give him possession of his portion grist mill the same charge- Some remarks from Coun

of the mill property without it was forcibly wrested from sellor Gro.H. Harris followed by prest Allred.. Some altreat-him- Bro. Cooley said they had mutually agreed to put all ion between the parties- Counsellor Harris called for the

into the millers hands, and each draw what they needed

reading of the decision of the former Council on

for their families use, and let the millers keep an accurate

matter- Counsellor Coulson made some remarks and motioned that this case be dismissed from this Council observed that this was not the proper tribunal to adjust property claims & differences said it should go before the Bishop- The council voted to dismiss it entirely-Councillor L. Stoddard made report of his trip to Indian

Town and the intermediate points= said Father Cutler with Wm

Redfield & - Rainez were one day a head of him,, said they had heard them speak, and as many as were for them was against us, made some remarks relative to the Branches in general and the organizing of some Branches,= At Nishenaboteny they formed they could not organize for there were not enough sound members to organized Calvin Beebe there told them he knew they wanted to organize them so as to get then tithing but he wanted his tithing to go to Gather Cutler and the House of Isreal- he futher said that was the feelings of the people generally there=
