that Bro. Haws and Woodworth have a chance at the next Council to make known their claims and have an investigation

The Council adjourned 2 weeks,

Jan 28th AD 1849

Council next pursuant to adjourn ment. Opened with prayer by Councilor

J. M. Benson. Councillors all present but H. A. Miller,, His place was filled by Thomas Guymen..

Present of The Twelve Orson Hyde

Geo. A. Smith and E. T. Benson

Councillor H. W. in and took his seat in the council

The clerk read the former minutes and they were accepted..

Pres. O. Hyde opened the business of the day on the case of Peter Haws and Lucian Woodworth,, said if they had claims, and were not willing to have then investigated by this Council but had their eye on another Council, if they were wise men they would keep the cogitations of their hearts but if they are continually poisoning the minds of this people, they are certainly under the jurisdiction of this Council and my mind is that they this day have an intercationtraction to the Authority of this Council.. They manifest the spirit of Apostacy in that
