3rd witness Nancy Maria Avery, testified that Bro. Hatch had abused her mother, in taring her Petticote from her, she had heard Bro H. damn and God damn her mother heard him say, her mother belonged to another man and if he knew she did he would be the death of the man,, heard him day he carred nothing for the council, heard wish old man Harris ,damned in hell, heard him say he had writen and advertise-ment to sell his cattle and would go east,, said she slept in the same room with them, said they were both in bed when the petticote scrape took place,, she heard him say he would hang himself,, said he would have done it the last night of the winter confer-ence had he of had a pair to have written his will..

4th witness Samuel Henderson said all the com-plaint sister Hatch made to him against Bro. Hatch was his abuse in wanting to use her against the laws of God and nature,, said her situation was she had been in a family way and she had lost it, and she had been very weakly all winter, said brother Hatch confessed to him he had abused her,, he did not know that the children had any disagreements.. He tho't the old gentleman was angry the other day &c..

Pres. Geo A. Smith made some remarks showing that the difficulty arose from a spirit of Jealousy, and that it would still exist in the family if they try to live togetather so long as there was a gray hair on either of their heads..

Counselor Draper moved that the council decide what he done by the parties,, carried..

Counselor Draper moved that Bro. Hatch return all the things he received with her,, and furnish her a comfortable cabin for six months, and pay her forty dollars in property, as follows, (to wit) one good cow, three hundred weight of good pork, one hundred-red weight of good flour, twenty bushels of good corn, and the rest in groceries &c,, carried..
