by G. W. Harris & W. Snow & Mc Clellan, sustained the course that Councellor Benson had taken & thought additions should be made of presidents as Br Hunt an some others having five or six appointments to attend in one evening at the Dance

B Stoddard was glad to hear Councellor Coulson make his remarks relative to Henry Woodward for he had lied to him boy saying that there was a fair understanding.

Councellor Coulson being asked by Councellor Harris why he did not deal with him he had had no one[=====] since that time He had wildly rode [======] the Town- He was one of those returned from the Valley and he has made considerable fuss spoke considerable as to his course,He had made no satisfaction- I told him he could have no more priviledge here- and told some one to trust me that he would dance where he pleased and that he had Tickets for several dances I said I thought I could reach him-

Councellor Coulson thought he ought to be dealt with, Councellor Harris wished to have him cut off.---------- Councellor Bigler wished to have him appear before the Councel, Brother Stoddard followed by similar expression of feeling and made a motion that he appear before the Council seconded.

Councellor stoddard wished to make an amend-mens what is if he make satisfaction at the branch at Council Point he appear before the High Council's
