by G. W. Harris & W. Snow & Mc Clellan, sustained the course that Councillor Benson had taken & thought additions should be made of presidents as Br Hunt an some others having five or six appointments to attend in one evening at the Dance

B Stoddard was glad to hear Councillor Coulson make his remarks relative to Henry Woodward for he had lied to him boy saying that there was a fair understanding.

Councillor Coulson being asked by Councillor Harris why he did not deal with him he had had no one[=====] since that time

He had wildly rode [=====] the Town-

He was one of those returned from the Valley and he has made considerable fuss spoke considerable as to his course,He had made no satisfaction- I told him he could have no more priviledge here- and told some one to trust me that he would dance where he pleased and that he had Tickets for several dances I said I thought I could reach him-Councillor Coulson thought he ought to be dealt with, Councillor Harris wished to have him cut off.-----

Councillor Bigler wished to have him appear before the Council, Brother Stoddard followed by similar expression of feeling and made a motion that he appear before the Council seconded.

Councillor stoddard wished to make an amend-mens

what is if he make satisfaction at the branch at Council Point he appear before the High Council's

Councillor Mc Lellan alluded to a similar case he name was Henry Widvile and wanted to know if it was right for him to attend Dances
