President, O.Hyde made some remarks on these points „said he did believe that Bro's Haws and Woodworth were escerting an influence to sour the minds of the people against the presidency of the Church..

Brother Whilock said as he came up from St. Louis, at St Joseph he was told by some of the brethren, that saw bro's Haws and Woodworth as they returned from Texas that they were not going to Texas with, nor with the body of the Church at the Valey,, said he told the same spirit manifest on Keg Creek,, said bro Elis Eames informs him that Bro's Haws and Woodworth courted an investigation on the Authority of the Church..

Bro Elis Eames said there are many on Keg Creek whose minds are soured by some means,, said Bro Woodworth had told him there are some things that are not right and he wanted an investigation, that said things were not as ordered by the prophet, and he wanted the people should know it..

Bro E. T. Benson said he saw Bro Haws in St Joseph as they come home from the south who said to me with regard to Bro L. Woodworth" you do not know that man..At Bro James Lakes we staid all night together and had considerable chat on this point and we both got quite warm, and I know that Bro Haws is not with this people and told him so there.. After some remarks from several of the Councillors,, they voted
