I asked her, did he feel titties, she answered yes-- every night-- she answered yes,he did every night-- did

Hewitt I know better; I Know you have,and you are smart enough to know that I must be out of the way he sleep with you-- she answered if you had asked me first- finally Mary Ette went to Hewitts- after a while she that yesterday I would have said no-- She acknowledged came back; she then told me she would never have any one that she did sleep with Hewitt and his wife-- Hewitt except they would be sociable with me-- I asked her if she offered her money, he did feel of her, and she slept thought she had treated me well, or if she thought Hewitt in his arms all night. Question, by the Prest Do you had either! She answered, No- I declare before God I belive in your heart that Hewitt has had to do with her-never consented to have her go to Hewitt, but considered her answer, I do, the next time I asked her if Hewitt had not to go--- Question, do you believe that Hewitt would tried to sleep with her again, she answered yes-- he tried do anything criminal, after Mary Ette came home to you-every night and said that Sister Hewitt told her that Bro Hewitt did not want her to come and see me, for fear that she would get with child by me, and then he would be censured, sister Hewitt also told her if she was not satisfied to go where she was satisfied--- Councillor Geo. Coulson spoke on the case and motioned that Bro. Hewitt & his wife be cut off from the church.

It was seconded by Councillors Ira Oviatt & J. M. Benson

Councillor L. Stoddard remarked, he was willing a fine of one or two hundred dollars should be added & he was willing to back it up in the valley or else where--

Councillors Geo. Coulson, Aa. Johnson tho't cutting off from the church was sufficient without any further penalty, & let the Brethren in the Valley rise that. It was moved & seconded and carried that Bro Hewitt be called in. He came in.
