Counselor Richards asked if brother and Sister Wooley had delivered to the bishop all the property belonging to Estate of brother Cooper Mrs. Wooley answered in the affirmative excepting one collander which had been lent, one bed tick she had been washing and one metall tea pot which she said she would give up ..
Bishop Murdock gave his reason for making his complaint against the defendants Called up William Payne, who testified to a silk dress and a pair of cotton cording breeches and leggins not found among the things delivered up..
Sister Richards to the silk dress not found..

Sister Rebecca Ames testified to one tuscan bonnet a white flannel petticoate and other things not found Sister Hannah P. Gammett testified to a blue and white callico dress and cape rich & nice, and considerable linnen which she saw when she assisted to lay out Sister Cooper..
Bishop Murdock claimed the right of search for said property..
Councilor Richards moved that bishop Murdock draft a committee to search for purloined goods, vote carried..
Bishop Murdock sumoned the whole council, chose Jas. Alred & P. Richards as counselors, and called upon the witnesses to go and see for themselves if any things were found they could identify..After search,some things being found, we returned to brother Richards house and entered into an examination if witnesses..

Brother Harrison Oliver Testified that he was satisfied were many things gone as he
